

Mahaska Chamber & Development Group Communicator

Jennifer & Tony Spargur from Bloomfield introduced their Fat Cow Creamery trailer to the community at Sweet Corn Serenade in Oskaloosa. Established in 2022 they make custard (a high fat/pasteurized egg yolk/rich ice cream) and serve it up in various ways: shakes, sundaes, with cow pies (cookies), or blended with your favorite toppings into a "Stam-pede". They recently joined the Chamber. More information: 641.208.6708 or fatcowcreamery1@gmail.com.

Sweet Corn Serenade was a great place for Jackelin Santos and Yeylyn Castellanos to cut the ribbon on their food truck LaDelicia Food. (Not pictured Luis Castellanos.) Based in Ottumwa and serving fresh, homemade Mexican food including quesadillas, burritos, tacos, nachos & more; call 641-455-1741 or email ladeliciafoods@gmail.com.

Cutting the ribbon at The Tippy Travelers is Megan Libe, Owner. From Keota The Tippy Travelers is a mobile bar & event bartending service, specializing in creating beverages both non-alcoholic and alcoholic for any type of event you may have! Opal is their horse trailer bar on wheels. "Special Event?? Let's drink to that!" PH 319.201.0470; TheTippyTravelers.com

The Mahaska Chamber Diplomats cut the ribbon at Twin Cedars Bank, formerly State Bank of Bussey. Chairman and CEO of Twin Cedars Bank, Rudy Fors, welcomed the community and is excited to have a location in Oskaloosa. Pictured with the Chamber Diplomats are staff from the Twin Cedars Bank: Alyssa Vande Voort, Renee Parker, Belinda Wursta, Amanda Nelson, Jamie Wisse, Kim Hansen, Ed Sullivan, Jaci Hansen, Ben Yoder, and Rudy Fors.

This trio: Naomi Gretter, Kari Berg & Sky Hahn (not shown) from Harper, Iowa left their teaching careers and started a mobile coffee truck called Rural Revival. They cut the ribbon at Sweet Corn Serenade in Oskaloosa. Their plan is to revive the rural area beverage needs one drink at a time. They offer many non-coffee, hot & cold, options as well. Call 319-310-3808 or email ruralrevival.llc@gmail.com.

THANK YOU to all the volunteers who helped make this year's Sweet Corn Serenade a SUCCESS!
