

Mahaska Chamber & Development Group Communicator

Danyel Willhour, Officer recently cut the ribbon at Five Star Title & Escrow, 117 N 1st, Street in Oskaloosa. Fiona Limpach serves as Closing Assistant. Located in the Main Street District next to EZ Sales, they assist financial institutions, attorneys, realtors, and individuals with real estate settlement and escrow services and issue title commitment and endorsements upon request. They can help you work through purchase transactions, refinances, 1031 exchanges, and various closings. Danyel has 21 years' experience in the banking and real estate industry. Stop in or call 641.676.5555 for more information.

Lynnae VanGenderen was welcomed as the manager at the new boutique located at The Hair Designers Salon & Spa, 1210 B Ave. West in Oskaloosa. With waiting rooms less important at salons now, there's no better place to put a boutique. You'll find clothing, jewelry, shoes, bags, hats, gloves, home décor along with all the amenities of the salon and spa. Photo along with the Diplomats includes salon owner Pam Peters and one extremely satisfied customer. Find them on Facebook or call 641.673.5170.

Dr. Rodney G. Throckmorton, D.C. and wife Missy are enjoying their new location for Mahaska Chiropractic at 218 N. B Street in Oskaloosa. Missy serves as radiology tech and office assistant. They offer chiropractic adjustments, computerized spinal decompression therapy, x-rays, and MLS robotic laser therapy—one of only four in the state that offer such. Laser therapy is especially helpful post-surgery and with sports injury. Licensed Massage Therapist, Michelle Mason (not pictured) offers massage therapy at this location as well. Mahaska Chiropractic can be reached at 641.673.8414.

Congratulations to Lisa Ossian the new manager of the ONLY independent bookstore between Des Moines and Iowa City; that being Oskaloosa's very own Book Vault. Her 30 years' experience teaching at Community College level and most recently at William Penn bring much to the store. She jumped in on November 1 with focus on the holidays. January & February will focus on inventory and a bit of rearranging. March and on will bring some new events. She has already brought neighboring stores' items in to enhance the displays. This big city bookstore within a beautifully renovated 3-story historic downtown building is at 105 S. Market St. in Oskaloosa, Iowa. Call 641.676.1777 or find them on Facebook.

Judy Groenendyk cut the ribbon at Brushed by Jude. Judy, a retired nurse, has been painting as long as she can remember. She grew from her "seasonal" garage, to the rear portion of Debbie's Merle Norman and now the much larger location at 121 South Market. Her creativity and talent show in her work—furniture, home décor items, seasonal decorations and more. She offers classes on Tuesday evenings and by appointment. There is always something new planned for one to create and make.

Currently she also features the work of Marlyn Hoksbergen (pottery) and Jill Edwards (fiber, dying, luminaries). Visit the store on the southwest corner of the Square Th, Fr, Sat from 11 – 6 or check out a class. Call 641.660.2536.

New Mahaska Chamber Members

Envision Art Gallery
Sergiy Nagorny & Vera Babich
Penn Central Mall
563.299.3742

The Village in Eddyville
708 Mill St. Eddyville
515.422.6464

Five Star Title & Escrow
Danyel Willhour
117 N 1st, Street, Oskaloosa
641.676.5555

Tassel Ridge Winery
Bob Wersen
1681 220th St., Leighton
641.672.9463

M. Shrago and Son, Inc.
Phil Grandinetti
704 1st Ave. W, Oskaloosa
641.673.5160

T-Mobile
812 A Ave. W, Ste 2,
Oskaloosa
641.215.8202

Lighted Christmas Parade Winners

Special thanks to everyone who participated and volunteered to make this a successful event!

Most Outstanding For-Profit: Musco

Most Outstanding Non-Profit:
First Assembly of God

Children's Choice: Mahaska Drug

Judges' Choice: Oskaloosa Public Library