Carol Kelderman cuts the ribbon in celebration of the addition of 900 square feet and the 16th anniversary of Oskaloosa's Kinetic Edge Physical Therapy! This physical and occupational therapy clinic in Oskaloosa, Iowa offers a wide variety of services which include injury rehabilitation, worker performance, athletic training, medical fitness, and pediatric physical therapy. Some of these services were only available in much larger communities (Des Moines/Iowa City), but now you can utilize your local providers. Congratulations Kinetic Edge! Call 641.676.3535, email osky-clinic@KineticEdgePT.com or stop at 1412 A Ave. West in Oskaloosa.

Penn Centre Theatre (a Fridley Theatre) is celebrating their totally renovated auditoriums at 216 West 2nd Avenue in Oskaloosa by cutting the ribbon. General manager, Saria Carroll; Assistant manager, Ireland Brannan; Area manager Chris Kottman and Adam Nihart from Fridley Theatres were on hand to give us a tour and tell us all about the new and improved seating. These new seats are heated and recline for your comfort. There is easy visibility wherever you sit in the auditorium. The staff at Penn Centre Theatre is excited to get back to pre-Covid numbers and hope to increase numbers with the new and improved auditoriums. Another new feature is the pre-sale tickets which can be purchased on-line. They would also like to invite you to their GRAND RE-OPENING on December 8, 9, 10 & 11.

Young Ambassador Winners Announced

The Oskaloosa Main Street Young Ambassador Contest winners were announced in an enjoyable event at Penn Central Mall on November 28. In attendance were twenty-seven contestants and their families and friends. The Young Ambassador Contestants were introduced by Master of Ceremonies, Joe Milledge of KIIIC Radio. Katie Trainer from Oskaloosa Early Childhood Center read a delightful Christmas story for the children. The winners were announced, and gifts were presented by Santa.

"The contest is open to children ages 3 to kindergarten. We had 27 children in the running this year," shared Deb Bruxvoort, Oskaloosa Main Street/Mahaska Chamber. "The funds raised support the Oskaloosa Main Street Lighted Christmas Parade, but each year we also donate a portion of the proceeds to a local preschool. This year, that recipient is Little Creations Preschool." This year's 2022 Young Ambassador Princess is Preslee Breuklander, daughter of Dave & Amie Breuklander. The Prince is Myles McGee, son of Megan & Erik McGee.

Thank you to all contestants, all sponsors, Chamber Diplomats for collecting and tallying votes, and all those that helped at the event. Congratulations to the winners.
