The Mahaska Chamber Diplomats were excited to celebrate a ribbon cutting for 363 Barber Co. located at 212 N Market Street (alley entrance)! Please join us in welcoming Jerica to Oskaloosa! After training in Moline, Jerica has opened a full-service barber shop right here in our community. Whether you're looking for a fresh cut, beard trim, or a complete grooming experience, 363 Barber Co. is ready to serve you!

The Mahaska Diplomats celebrated the 20th Anniversary of Animal Health Center of Oskaloosa on Thursday, June 11. The celebration included customer giveaways, prize sign-ups, goodies and treats and friendly faces welcoming us. While there, we met Wally, the Animal Health Center mascot! Wally loves greeting visitors and can't wait to say hello. Don't forget to check out Wally Wednesdays on their Facebook page for fun updates and adventures! Thank you, Animal Health Center of Oskaloosa, for your 20 years of dedication, care, and commitment to the pets and families of our community. Congratulations on this amazing milestone, and here's to many more years of serving Oskaloosa!

Congratulations to the Mahaska Area Food Cupboard on their Ribbon Cutting and Open House at their new location! Formerly known as the Ecumenical Food Cupboard, the Mahaska Area Food Cupboard is now serving the community from their new home at 104 N G Street in Oskaloosa. The Mahaska Area Food Cupboard provides an important service to our community and welcomes those in need during the following hours:
Mondays: 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, Wednesdays: 10:00 AM – Noon, Fridays: 9:45 AM – 11:45 AM
Be sure to watch for their upcoming Food Pantry Sculpture Contest in August! Teams must register by July 20.

Thank you to the volunteers, supporters, and community partners who make this vital resource possible. We wish the Mahaska Food Cupboard continued success in their new location!
