The Mahaska Chamber Diplomats were honored to hold a ribbon cutting at Miller's Place in New Sharon—a new community gathering space dedicated to the late and longtime Mayor Keith Miller. Keith served the City of New Sharon for an incredible 46 years as Mayor and spent 40 years as a school bus driver, leaving behind a legacy of leadership, dedication, and community pride. Miller's Place stands as a tribute to his lasting impact and commitment to the people of New Sharon.

The Mahaska Chamber Diplomats were proud to welcome Guillotine Barber Co. to their new location at 214 South Market Street in downtown Oskaloosa! Owner Drew Laverty has been cutting hair for over five years and brings his talent and passion for classic barbering to the Main Street District. Drew offers haircuts, beard trims, and hot lather shaves — and you can schedule your appointment online or stop by for a walk-in! Drew celebrated the ribbon cutting with his wife Alexus and their children Milan and Alana, joined by Chamber Diplomats helping to officially welcome them to the community.

Welcome to Banners and Brushes by Sarah! The Mahaska Chamber Diplomats were excited to share this creative new addition to the community. Banners and Brushes by Sarah specializes in custom, hand-painted banners for any occasion — birthdays, showers, holidays, and more! Each piece is designed to perfectly match your theme and style, making your celebrations extra special. She also offers Thanksgiving and Christmas coloring banners — perfect for kids' tables or family gatherings — along with personalized outdoor mats to give your home that festive touch! You can reach Sarah directly through her Facebook page to order or learn more about her beautiful work.
